Special Town Meeting June 29th

A Special Town Meeting has been called, by the Board of Selectmen, a Town Meeting for the purpose of confirming the vote of the Legislature, and giving the High School Building Committee authority to build an athletic field, behind the High School. The Selectmen voted, Monday night, to call the meeting on June 29th, with the deadline for articles to be submitted for consideration of the town being Monday, June 20th.

Dine and Dance

Carl Costello, owner of Carl & Marie's, on Main Street, was granted a license for dancing, by the Selectmen. Costello was present in person and told the Selectmen that he had spent a lot of money in the place which he has recently purchased and now is operating, that the State Department of Public Safety has approved of his hall, for 200 persons.

Costello intends to employ a five piece orchestra, now playing at the Sherry Biltmore Hotel, on Mass Avenue, for dancing on Friday and Saturday evenings. He will have a uniformed policeman in attendance, he told the Selectmen. The hall will be available for other social events, weddings, receptions and banquets.

The license was granted by the Selectmen with a fee being set at $25 for the remainder of the year.

Duck

A letter was received by the Selectmen from the owner of a duck, killed by dogs, for which he will be re-imbursed.

Somerville Rod & Gun Club

Alexander Kaval and Arthur Fantasia, of the Somerville Rod & Gun Club, attended the meeting. They told the Selectmen that they were present to get a permit to shoot Sundays, and that they thought the permit would stir up some enthusiasm among some of their members. They realized that their letter had said no shooting until the ranges were approved, but they had to stir up enthusiasm, they said.

The two men were asked as to their status with the Wilmington Rod & Gun Club, and they reported that "everything is ok".

Selectmen E. Hayward Bliss: Not to our understanding! The Wilmington Rod & Gun Club came in here, and the Camp Forty Acres came in here, and protested. They said that they would return later, but we haven't seen them. The burden of the proof is up to you.

Kaval: They have met with us, and everything is ok.

Bliss: They haven't reported to us.

Mrs. Wavie Drew, Chairman: I may be wrong, but I understand there is a difference of opinion.

Kaval: Of course there is always a chance for a difference of opinion, between any two groups of people, but they have visited us, and we them, and everything seemed all right - but we are here to see about the shooting ranges. We have to get the men to show enthusiasm.

TM Courtney: Have you submitted plans to the Building Inspector?

Kaval: Two months ago. Mrs. Drew: You will have to see him. Unless he gives you the permit, you are out of luck - I don't believe in shooting on Sundays anyway, but that isn't here or there.

Kaval: Could you say that if the Building Inspector gave us the building permit that the Selectmen would give us permission to shoot on Sundays?

Mrs. Drew: Couldn't say - that's in the future.

Kaval: The opposition lies in the Wilmington Club, and the boys club?

Bliss: Not entirely - but they came here and protested, and haven't been here since.

Selectman Joseph Woods: It is thanks to the Wilmington Rod & Gun Club that shooting is permitted at all, in Wilmington. The people were ready to vote a no shooting law, and they persuaded the town to vote otherwise - at least for a year.

Selectman Nicholas DeFelice: Yes, and shooting can still be voted out. It only takes 10 people to get an article in the Town Warrant. It could be put into the Warrant for the special meeting we are going to have, if anyone had a mind to - you get the parents of the Girl Scouts, the Boy Scouts, the Cub Scouts and the Brownies to a Town

SECOND SALK INJECTION TO BE DELAYED

The scheduled injections of Wilmington children, with their second inoculation of Salk Anti-Polio serum has been indefinitely delayed. State authorities have advised the town authorities that no date can be given because of a question of delivery.

Wilmington's Supt. of Schools, John Collins, has stated that when the date has been announced the Public Schools will be opened, for the time being, and the School Buses will operate, on their regular morning schedule, to pick up children for their inoculations. Several weeks notice may be expected, he said.

DOG CLINIC SATURDAY

Next Saturday, in the Highway Building (next to the Walker School), the Wilmington Board of Health will conduct a "dog clinic", for the purpose of inoculating dogs against Rabies. The clinic will start at 1 pm., and will last until 4 pm., or until dogs have been vaccinated.

The charge for the inoculation will be 75 cents, and the work will be done by a Doctor of Veterinary Medicine.

The Wilmington Board of Health has emphasized that they do not intend to do anything but improve the health position, of the town, in this dog clinic. According to Frank Haggerty, Chairman, the owners of dogs which are unlicensed will have nothing to fear, as regards licenses at the clinic. "All we want, says Haggerty, is to eliminate Rabies, in Wilmington".

SERIOUSLY INJURED

Robert Barboza, of West Street, son of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Barboza, is on the "critical" list, in St. John's Hospital, Lowell, following an auto accident, near Daley's Farm, on Andover Street, Sunday evening. Three other occupants of the car were also sent to the same hospital, and two were allowed to go to their homes, after being treated by Dr. Miriam J. Hosmer.

The impact of the car, a 1950 Ford sedan, snapped a telephone pole, near the Daly home. Police say that the driver of the car was Dominic Cicoline, 16 West Street, Everett. The car had to be towed to Cain's Garage, and police say it is a total loss.

Taken to St. John's Hospital in the Fire Department ambulance were Robert Barboza, 16, West Street, and Jane Stevens, 15, of Longview Road, by Firemen Joe Cunningham and Kenneth Marshall. Taken to the same hospital, in the Police Cruiser were Dominic Cicoline and Douglas Anderson, 16 of Park Street, by Officer George Shepard, of the Wilmington Police.

Marjorie Beddoes, 15, of North Street, and Marilyn Boyle, 15, of Birchwood Road were allowed to go to their homes, after treatment by Dr. Hosmer.

PARK BOARD SETS UP REGULATIONS FOR USE OF BEACH

The members of the Wilmington Recreation Commission are seeking the cooperation of the townspeople in making the Silver Lake Beach a safe and practical recreation spot for the coming summer. It must be called to the attention of bathers and swimmers that there is need for an extra effort in keeping the beach free from glass and other blunt articles. Persons are reminded that no dogs are allowed on the premises at any time.

The beach area will be opened from one o'clock each afternoon until eight o'clock in the evening. This policy will continue in effect until the elementary schools are closed and from that time on the beach will open as early as ten o'clock every day with the exception of Sundays when the beach will open at twelve noon.

Plans are being formulated for the operation of the playground in the following areas: Silver Lake Beach, Walker School, Wildwood School, Whitefield School, and the Boy's program of pony baseball on the Wilmington Common. These areas will open on June twenty-seventh.

Beginners swimming classes and other life saving and water safety classes will be held at the beach with the dates to be announced at another time.

BLACK BASS & ALEWIVES

(From Gene Courtemanche's column June 1, 1955)
 Silver Lake has been stocked with alewives and 100 adult small mouth bass.

(From the Town Report 1879)
 The Committee on Fisheries respectfully submit the following report:

Your committee, immediately after their appointment, took steps to obtain a lease of Silver Lake, for the production of black bass. Owing to delays occasioned by existence of a former lease, this was not secured until Sept. 18th last. It binds the town to put into Silver Lake not less than one hundred fish of an average weight of a pound and a half, within a year; but the Chairman of the Fish Commission has since informed us that thirty good black bass would be considered satisfactory, and a fulfillment of the town's obligation.

Last September we learned of no way in which the fish could be procured, of the required sort, for less than a dollar each, and for this the appropriation was insufficient. The season closed in October and nothing was done.

This Spring we have received from Robert R. Holmes, of East Wareham, an offer to deliver in Boston thirty black bass of from 1 1/2 to 3 1/2 pounds in weight, for $38, which seems to us a reasonable price; and we propose, if the town will enable us to accept it, to have the fish put into the pond at the earliest possible date.

The practicability of restoring to Ipswich River and its branches the abundant supply of alewives which our older inhabitants remember, has engaged our attention.
 We conceive this, indeed, to be the most important object that falls within the scope of this committee. By a study of the maps, by correspondence with town authorities, and by personal visitation, we have satisfied ourselves that there remains but one dam, unsupplied with a fish-way, between Wilmington and the sea. This is at the paper mill in Middleton. This fact has been reported to the State Commissioners, who encourage us to go on, and to put into our brooks this Spring all the alewives that we can get. We hope to obtain them in large numbers, and then, in four years, to see large results.

The expenses of the committee have been $5, the cost of the lease. We ask an appropriation, this year, of $50, in addition to the unexpended balance of $20, to meet the cost of procuring black bass for the pond, and alewives and other fish for the brooks.

Your committee also recommended the creation of a permanent Board of Fish Wardens, to look after all the fishing interests of the town; that this board consist of three persons, first chosen, respectively, for one, and two, and three years; and that hereafter such yearly elections be made as shall keep the number full.

John F. Wild,
 H. Allen Sheldon
 Daniel P. Noyes
 Committee.

Wilmington, Feb. 13, 1880.
 (From the Town Report of 1880)

Report of the Fish Wardens
 The fish wardens have to report that thirty four black bass, of good size, in good condition, and full of spawn, were put into Silver Lake last spring. The public appear to have respected the effort of the town to stock this pond. So far as we have learned, the fish have not been interfered with; and they are believed to be doing well.

It was our hope to procure alewives for the brooks and the pond; but owing to the resignation of one member of our board, and the forwardness of the season, which brought these fish earlier than was expected, the opportunity was missed. We hope to be more successful next May, and that in a few years this valuable fish may swarm in our streams as they once did.

We have likewise made application to the State Commissioners for a supply of the European Carp, an excellent fish, long cultivated on the estates of the wealthier classes in Europe, very easily raised, and exactly suited to the warm and sluggish waters of our principal brooks.

The State Commissioners give us assurance that the Ipswich River shall be opened through its extent, in ample season for any fish that we may put into it. A balance of twenty dollars remains in the hands of the town's treasurer, for the use of the board; and we trust it will be sufficient.

Daniel P. Noyes
 Thomas P. Eames

(From the Town Report of 1881)

Report of the Fish Wardens

The undersigned, Fish Wardens of this town, respectfully report: That on the 14th of May 1881 twenty two alewives were put into Maple Meadow Brook, and on the twenty fourth of May thirty nine alewives were placed in Silver Lake. It was then supposed that the young of these thirty nine would be able to reach Lubber's Brook and find their way to salt water. But the pond was so low, last year, that this proved impossible, and it may be that some, or that all, of the young fish spawned there have died. Mr. Brackett, one of the State Commissioners, has promised to inspect the artificial channel which is the sole outlet, and determine whether it will be worth while for the State to deepen it, so as to secure an available passage when the pond is low. This he will do in April next. It is our expectation to stock Lubber's Brook during the coming season, and it is our hope that Silver Lake may yet prove a practicable breeding ground.

Our attention has been directed to the European Carp
 - a fish commended by the highest authorities as especially suited to sluggish and warm waters. A large number of these have been deposited in a neighboring reservoir. We have endeavored to obtain a supply, and hope to succeed.

We have no expenses to report.

Henry Sheldon
 Thomas P. Eames
 Daniel P. Noyes

Wilmington Feb. 20, 1882

(From the Town Report of 1881)

Two years ago alewives were put into Silver Lake, under the impression that an available outlet existed whereby their young fry could reach the sea; but the pond proved lower than usual, that summer, so that its water could not flow. As this channel is artificial, the undersigned did not feel authorized to deepen it; they arranged for a meeting, however, with the Fish Commissioners, for the purpose of determining whether anything could be done; but, for some unknown reason, this appointment failed, and the young alewives, which had appeared in great numbers, are supposed to have perished.

Alewives were placed at the same time in Maple Meadow Brook, and their progeny may be expected to make an appearance next year.

Next May it will be three years since black bass were put into Silver Lake. Next year the Fish Commissioners will doubtless permit fishing on a limited number of specified days; of this due notice will be given. We have no knowledge respecting the number of fish now in the pond; unknown causes may possibly have interfered with the success of the town's experiment, but we know of no reason why it should not prove an entire success.

Great thoughtlessness, or else hostility, has been manifested by unknown parties, who have removed notices of the prohibition of fishing, put up by the wardens; moreover we have reason to suspect that some fishing has taken place. We call upon all good citizens to aid in warning off, or, if it becomes necessary, in detecting trespassers.

We regard the restoration of the alewives of greater real value to the town than the introduction of the black bass. This, we trust, has been accomplished in one, at least, of our two principal brooks, and we expect to make it sure in the other also.

We are not without hope of likewise securing, before long, the European Carp. This fish has been a favorite for centuries in England and on the Continent; it thrives best in warm and sluggish waters, grows to a large size and is said to be excellent eating.

In conclusion we wish to say, that this town is engaged in an endeavor to promote the advantage and the pleasure of all its citizens, and of their friends who come to visit them; it has a just claim on the sympathy, and the active and watchful cooperation, of all the citizens, and also of all the strangers who are persons of sufficient public spirit to be interested in a praiseworthy enterprise.

(Editor's Note - The Town Report of 1882 listed the Fish Wardens, but has no report. The Town Report seems to have been a failure.)

POLICE CRUISERS ETC

The Town of Reading has recently purchased a Ford Country Sedan, (i.e. Beach Wagon) for their Police Department, similar in design and purpose to the two cruisers in use by our department. According to the plan announced, if this cruiser is found to be satisfactory the second cruiser of that department will be also replaced by a Country Sedan. Both are to be equipped with first aid stretchers, blankets, pillow, etc., and the town ambulance, a 1946 Cadillac, will then be disposed of for what is believed will be a considerable savings.

The Town of Tewksbury has recently purchased a regular Ford Sedan, and has had its registration so made that it has regular number plates, not the "M" variety.
 There are no signs on the car to indicate that it belongs to the police department, and the only way a motorist can tell that the car approaching (or chasing) him is a cruiser is by happening to notice that the man behind the wheel is in uniform.

The Town of Wilmington, as everybody knows, has had a Beach Wagon type of cruiser now, for several years (and also the more-or-less famous "ice-truck"). We also have an ambulance problem, in that at the present time there is a debate going on, among the Selectmen, about Ambulance Regulations. Our ambulance is in charge of the Fire Department, and, as we believe, a 1939 Cadillac.

There has been, over the past few years, considerable oratory on the Town Hall floor, about our Police Cruisers, and, to a lesser extent, about our ambulance. Not only has there been oratory about the cruisers, but there has been hard feelings as well. The Police Department have wanted the "sedan" type cruisers, and they have made no bones about it. They had a town vote to this effect, but they still got a "beachwagon" type.

We are not particularly taking sides in the arguments, which have gone so far, with some people as to cause allegations that the "ice-wagon" was purchased simply for spite. We do feel, however, that the Chief of Police has a point, when he says that he prefers the Tewksbury style (no markings) to the Wilmington style.
 The point is that one never knows where the Tewksbury cruiser is, even if it is in sight. Chief Lynch thinks that this has done a lot to cut down speeding, in that town, and we are inclined to agree with him, from personal observation.

He wants both his cruisers to be black, unmarked sedans, because he feels that the present type of vehicle is too conspicuous. He will agree, however, that a plainly marked vesicle has its advantages, at times. He is against the beachwagon type, and his argument is summed up, in his words "You don't see Cronin Brothers (gravel) running furniture vans, and you don't see Roynane (furniture mover) with a dump truck. They have vehicles that fit their needs. Why can't we."

STONES ON HIGHWAYS

There were a lot less stones, on the highways, Thursday afternoon, than there were Thursday morning.

Gravel trucks had spilled stones, all along Middlesex Avenue, from North Wilmington to the Center. Chief Lynch heard about it, went out, and waited. A gravel truck came along, spilling stones.

The Chief made the operator sweep up all the stones, for the whole length of the highway.

ONLY SIX AT IPSWICH RIVER HEARING

The hearing, before the Ways and Means Committee, of the State Legislature, last Wednesday noon-time, saw only six interested persons in attendance. The hearing was held to consider the necessity of appropriating $636,000 to dredge the Ipswich River, and afford, by better drainage, relief to the towns of Wilmington and North Reading, now beset by swamps.

From Wilmington were Chairman of the Board of Selectmen, Mrs. Wavie Drew, Town Manager Joseph Courtney, and Town Sanitarian Patrick H. Thebeau. Charles V. Statuti, of the North Reading Board of Selectmen was present to represent his town, and Representative Frank Tanner, of the 18th Middlesex District was present. Representative Charles Wilkinson, also of the 18th Dist. was prevented from attending because of illness.

The hearing has been described as "pleasant and quiet". Mrs. Drew presented arguments about the amount of swampland in Wilmington, saying that the town wanted to drain the land, but would not do so until the river had first been dredged. TM Courtney spoke of the need for more land in this town, and of the use the land could be put to, while Mr. Buzzell & Mr. Thebeau presented arguments about the effect of the swamps, on the health of the town. Mr. Statuti, representing North Reading, presented similar arguments, as did Mr. Tanner.

One of the questions asked by the committee members was: "Who owns the land along the river?" - a question that could not be answered. Chief questioner was a Mr. Johnson, Representative from Worcester.

SPECIAL TOWN MEETING
JUNE 20TH

Meeting and you would be licked.

Mrs. Drew advised the two men to see the Building Inspector, and they left.

Dorchester Street

Joseph Albanese, of Dorchester Street, attended the meeting to see when the town was going to finish covering rocks, on land of his, in accordance with an agreement made with Dean Cushing, former Town Manager, 3 1/2 years ago. He was told by TM Courtney that the work should be finished this summer, that there were about 18 loads of fill still needed, which was being taken to Albanese's land as opportunity offered.

Bliss: Come back at the end of the summer, if the job isn't finished.

DeFelice: 90 days.

Street Numbers

James Graham, Grove Avenue, was present to protest the issuance of a license to a store, at an address which he believed he owned, on Grove Avenue. The store, he told the Selectman, has a right of way over his land, but is not on Grove Avenue, and is on Burnap Street. The store should not have a license with his address on it, he reiterated.

After some discussion it was decided that the Assessors and the Town Engineer should investigate, and if conditions warranted, the number or address of the license for the store could be changed.

Town Beach &amp; Ice Cream

A license application was received from a Wilmington man, to sell ice cream, etc., at the Town Beach, on Sundays. Mrs. Drew told the board that the Planning Board, charged with the duty of maintaining Town Parks, had made an agreement with the man, whose license was being considered that he would keep the Town Beach area clean, and would contribute to the cost of prizes bought each year, at the end of the season. None of the Selectmen knew the person whose name was on the application.

Selectmen Joseph Woods: We have stopped people from selling ice cream in other parts of Wilmington on Sundays.

DeFelice: If we license somebody - we are giving him a building rent free - if we are going to do that, let's advertise it and give disabled veterans a chance!

TM Courtney: Some communities put it out on bid.

Bliss: If the Planning Board wants to have a concession in the park it is up to them, but they should advertise - it is only fair to give everyone a chance - not to be rough with the Planning Board, but we are the licensing authority.

Action was tabled for one week, pending further investigation.

Action on another license was also tabled, probably indefinitely.

Memorial High School
Name

A letter was received from John Tautges, Secretary of the High School Building Committee, saying that the committee did not have the right to name the High School, as had been suggested by the Selectmen at an earlier meeting.

Mrs. Drew reported that the Town Counsel had stated that the building could not be named because of legal difficulties, until after all the money to be spent had been spent.

She also reported that Tautges had suggested that the athletic field be named "Memorial Field" - that this could be done now and might meet the Selectmen's purpose. A plaque could be erected, etc.

DeFelice and Woods: No. - a field isn't suitable - it gets frayed in a few years - it should be the building.

Mrs. Drew: Then we shall have to wait until the Annual Town Meeting.

TM Courtney: Couldn't we have a vote at the Special Town Meeting, authorizing the Committee to name the school, after construction, etc., is finished? - sort of advance notice?

The discussion was dropped at this point.

Ambulance Wrangle

Mrs. Drew casually mentioned that the Selectmen had not finished the discussion about Ambulance Regulations, and the sparks promptly began to fly. They continued to fly for about half an hour, as Selectman DeFelice expressed his opinions to the Town Manager.

The discussion opened mildly, with Woods observing that nothing had been heard, from any of the town's physicians. DeFelice observed that it had only cost $16 in overtime for the Fire Department, for the past month to operate the ambulance.

Courtney told the Selectmen that he would be satisfied with regulations that took the choice out of the hands of the Fire Chief or himself, and that would keep the ambulance available for all emergencies.

DeFelice: "Look - a man wakes up, he has a pain in his chest - say he's forty years old - he calls the doctor who orders the ambulance. How can the doctor tell? Is he going to take a chance? They get the guy to the hospital, and it turns out that he has been eating green cucumbers! Indigestion!"

TM: Yes, but then he pays $5. We know that most cases are obviously legitimate, but we want to stop having the taxi service idea, for the ambulance.

Woods: A woman comes out of her house, for the ambulance, carrying a suitcase!

DeFelice: Tax Money maintains the ambulance. Let the people decide! We don't want to do the dirty work! If there is to be any - let the people do it!

TM: The Board of Selectmen isn't being asked to - I merely referred this to them for their ideas.

Selectman Charles Black: I go along with Nick (DeFelice). I don't think the ambulance service has been abused except in a few instances.

TM: I have heard of too many cases!

DeFelice: Look - I have five children - suppose one of my children gets sick and the doctor orders him to the hospital - its already costing me money. Why should I have to pay for the town ambulance too? This is costing money for people who have families!

Bliss: Why don't we publish a set of rates, and in cases that we know are legitimate or that a doctor has ordered, we can waive it?

DeFelice: If you did that I would be calling myself a liar! If a doctor calls for the ambulance for me, and I walk out with a suitcase, and sit beside the driver all the way to the hospital, then I have been using the ambulance for a taxi - I have been abusing the service, and the Fire Chief should give you the information, and then you could call the doctor and say "Look, you are abusing a town service."

TM: I can't call a doctor and say - "Look, I'm kind of curious about your interpretation of an illness."

The TM displayed a report of ambulance cases from Jan 5th to May 11th.

DeFelice: Count them!

There were 57 cases. DeFelice: 57 cases - say 170 a year - two men - that costs $4 a trip - $680 a year - takes $12,000 for a dollar on the tax rate - this is less than $1000 - peanuts - nickles and dimes on the tax rate.

The TM cited previous costs of the ambulance, ending with a statement that $1070 was appropriated this year - he was interrupted by DeFelice -

DeFelice: Smash it! - that's what they do! - Dean Cushing had a way - he didn't fix it when they smashed it! I'm in favor of not charging the people, but I am in favor of written reports, if it looks like a taxi job!

Mrs. Drew was rapping on the table for order, as DeFelice continued. When she had order she observed, obviously trying to stop the discussion - "Mr. Courtney has asked for opinions, and he has got them!" The discussion did not stop.

The TM: Board of Health has spoken against this, in terms that I wouldn't want to use right now - sort of sparked - but we have a problem, the ambulance service was abused last summer, and I think it will be again. I don't think that a person, such as the Fire Chief or myself, who is not competent to make medical decisions should be called upon to decide who is going to ride in the ambulance. We need regulations so that we cannot be put in this position.

Mrs. Drew: I heard of a person - I won't give you his name, - he used the ambulance every day to go to Boston for penicillin shots - it isn't fair to the Fire Chief. We weren't fair to the Chief of Police either, when he had the ambulance!

TM: I don't know any easy answer. Boston and Brookline won't transport people beyond the town line. As far as ambulance charges go, they are covered by insurance - Blue Cross or Accident Insurance in cases of accidents, and if a family isn't covered, and is really up against it, the Board of Public Welfare could take care of it - I don't know any answer - I am open to suggestions.

TM's Report

The Town Manager reported on the employment of George Winters, as Town Engineer. Mr. Winters will begin his employment on July 5th.

Gravel Hearings

On the recommendation of the Town Manager, the Board of Selectmen designated next Monday, for "gravel hearings" for four firms operating gravel pits.

Gloomy Outlook

TM Courtney reported on the hearing, before the Ways and Means Committee, of the Legislature, last Wednesday, on the Ipswich River Drainage Bill. To date, the TM said, the committee has taken no action on the bill, and he added that he wouldn't be surprised if they never took any action.

Safety Education

The TM displayed copies of the Safety Education pamphlet prepared by the Rotary Club of Wilmington, and being distributed in the Wilmington schools. He commented that it was his idea of "an excellent job of public service."

Courtney reported that the Town Sanitarian had inspected premises where illegal keeping of pigs was alleged to exist, and could find none.

Cranberry Bog

The TM read a letter from Atty James D. St. Clair, relative to the cranberry bog, on Shawsheen Avenue. Atty St. Clair said, in his letter that he had inspected the area around the cranberry bog, and that he agreed with his clients, in that the 6 inch culverts, at Phillips Avenue, were insufficient to drain the bog, and that larger culverts should be installed. He said that with these culverts it took two or three days to drain the water from the bog, whereas formerly the bog was drained in a matter of two or three hours.

DeFelice: Yes, and that's how the trout get washed out of the brook!

Streets

Corrective patching, on Burnap Street, is to be done under Chapter 81 funds, the TM said. Auburn Avenue has been graded and finished, except for oiling, which will be done in a few weeks, after the gravel has been compacted. A 400 foot section of Woburn street, between Salem Street and the Brown's Crossing pumping station will be scraped and shaped this week, for surface treating. The TM termed this street to be the worst section in town. Other streets will be swept this week, in preparation for oiling, and high shoulders on Route 62, which create a dangerous condition, will be cut back and shaped.

Mosquitoes

The Tree Department is completing the first complete cycle of mosquito spraying, this week. This will be repeated perhaps twice, this summer.

Bond Issue

The TM displayed a copy of the Proposal to sell $1,375,000 in bonds for the new High School building. He said that the town had definitely gained, by delaying the sale of bonds for one year, as payments on other bonds had been made to bring the town's indebtedness down to a figure of less than $1 million, while the valuation had increased. The TM was hopeful of getting low interest rates, as a result.

Also displayed was the architects drawing of the new proposed playing field, in back of the high school.

Fight on Fire Dept.
Uniforms

In his report the TM stated he wished to eliminate the dress uniform allowance, for the Fire Department, and to dispense with the requirements that dress uniforms be worn, by members of the department, on their way to, or from work, except for the Chief and the

MARIE CHISHOLM BECOMES BRIDE

St. Thomas Church was the scene of a pretty wedding on May 22, at 5:30 p.m., when Miss Marie Chisholm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Chisholm of Wilmington, Delaware, became the bride of Carl Warren Butler, son of Mrs. Helen Syvertson, Morse Avenue, Wilmington. Rev. Edmund Croke was the officiating clergyman. The altar was decorated with vases of white snapdragons. At the close of the ceremony William Calnan sang "Mother at Thy Feet is Kneeling". Escorted by her father, the bride wore a white suit, small white hat with open crown and white orchid corsage.

Miss Dorothy Chisholm, sister of the bride, wore a suit with navy accessories and corsage of pink roses.

Frederick Ward, friend of the bridegroom, was best man and the ushers were Lloyd Belbin, friend of the groom and Henry Chisholm, brother of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Chisholm wore an aqua lace dress, with white hat and corsage of baby orchids.

TV STOPS SPEEDING IN PORTSMOUTH, N.H.

The day has come when speeders will suddenly see a roadside sign flash "Slow Down. You Are Speeding." The sign is actuated by the car's speed, electronically measured up the road was traveling. You can't argue with it about the speed you really were going.

The New Hampshire Department of Public Works and Highways watched a demonstration of this set up by Raytheon and General Precision men. Sitting in the building, they saw the stream of cars passing over General Sullivan bridge. This bird's-eye view, plus automatic speed control warning by electronically controlled signs will help control the flow of traffic and reduce accidents. This day of TV, automation, radar, etc. will help us automatically to do what we ought to do, and then put our mind on better things, too.

"We do have the largest armed force in our peacetime history. We want to make it smaller if we safely can, yet when, for example, we realize these facts of military requirement today, we know that we cannot afford anything but the best and most modern weapons and the finest of trained military forces. In the face of this need, we must now admit that our system of reserve training is woefully poor. In too many instances it is also utterly unfair to those who as patriotic citizens want to be part of our active reserve.

"In my opinion, our military and reserve policies must be drastically overhauled, and at top speed. The best of modern weapons and the largest trained reserve are indispensable requirements for our defense now. The military preparedness program President Eisenhower has recommended and his proposals for training our reserves are sound in their fundamentals. Our job now is to put them into effect.

"The Senate now has before it, for consideration a reserve bill which represents the principal objectives the President has in mind. In my opinion, this bill must be passed promptly, but without amendments which will weaken it or in any way fail to meet the standards the President has set for a full-strength, well-trained reserve.

"We must do everything in our power to establish a crystal-clear, sound manpower policy - one which will meet our military service and reserve needs and at the same time give the country's young men a program on which they can rely as they try to plan their own futures.

"This country's young manpower, in college and out of it, represents our greatest asset in these times of tension and crisis. Only as this asset is made use of to maximum effect can we achieve the security we must have. Simultaneously, we must be as fair as possible to these young men whom we call upon to serve. Only a clear-cut military and reserve policy and program will make it possible for them to plan their high school, college or working years in a way that makes sense for them personally while serving the nation's needs.

"A strong and well-trained reserve is absolutely essential to our country's defense. The Congress must see to its establishment and our people throughout the United States must have a full understanding of our objectives.

"You people here tonight are particularly interested in the fields of communication and electronics. Nowhere perhaps in all the areas of preparedness," continued Senator Saltonstall, "have there been more spectacular and more meaningful advances. Let me cite three examples of those I have discussed with the Pentagon.

"First, electronic computers, both simple and complex, are emerging from the laboratories and becoming integral parts of vital military electronics systems. The thousands of components used in many of these must be exceptionally reliable and stable and they, therefore, pose continuing challenges for our scientists in these fields. But when perfected, just consider their value for establishing data for accurate fire and for overcoming human errors.

TWO BIDDERS FOR SCHOOL BUS TRANSPORTATION

The Wilmington School Committee has a problem to consider, as the result of the opening of bids, for School Bus Transportation, last Wednesday evening.

A new comer, George A. Holzworth, president of the Car Lease Corporation, 119 Belmont Street, Brockton, submitted bids for the bus transportation, in addition to the bid submitted by the present contractor, Carleton A. MacIntyre, of North Reading.

Holzworth submitted four different bids, all of which apparently were lower in price than MacIntyre's. Holzworth told the committee that if any of the bids were taken he would buy new buses, garage them in Wilmington, and that, in addition to the savings offered by his lower bids, the town would also get the benefit of receiving the income from the Excise Tax on the vehicles.

The first of the bids by Holzworth was for $20,700 a year, for 6 buses, which would be leased to the town. Holzworth would have a Supervisor, but the town would have to supply five drivers, and pay for them.

Three more bids were based on Holzworth supplying the drivers, with the prices varying because of the type of vehicle to be used. Holzworth proposed to buy the chassis, and mount bus bodies on three different makes of trucks, depending on which bid was accepted. If the committee wanted International trucks, the price would be $26,640 per year (three year contract in all cases), Ford chassis would call for a price of $26,970, and GMC chassis would call for a price of $27,101. In all cases the buses would be garaged in Wilmington.

Holzworth also told the committee that he now has a contract of this type, with the town of Hanson. The committee decided that they would investigate the reaction, in that town, and instructed Superintendent of Schools, John Collins to do this.

Carleton MacIntyre, the present contract holder, submitted a bid of $27 a day per bus, for six buses on a three year contract. This would amount to approximately $28,350 a year. His present contract, which is expiring, is on a $25 per day bus basis, or approximately $26,250 per year.

No decision can be expected, from the School Committee, for several weeks.

Salk Vaccination

Superintendent of Schools John Collins reported on the progress of the Salk Anti-Polio Vaccination program, to date. 84% of the eligible children, in grades one and two, had originally been signed up, by their parents, for the anti-Polio vaccine. Collins said. Of this 84% there were 9% absent, or who had withdrawn from the program, when the vaccine was administered, and 91% who were inoculated. The total number inoculated was 453.

The tentative schedule for the second series of inoculations has been set for June 10th to June 16th, Collins told the committee.

The Wildwood School will be first, on June 10th, which is the last day of school. On June 13th the Whitefield and West Schools will be done, on the 15th the Walker and Center Schools, and on the 16th the Mildred Rogers School.

The teachers of all the schools effected have volunteered to return, to assist in the program, for the day that their school is scheduled, Collins said. He suggested that the School Committee authorize the transportation of the children to receive vaccine, by the School Bus system, and this was authorized by the committee.

School Lunch Program

Mrs. Whelmina De Lisle, director of the School Lunch Program, will attend the Annual School Lunch Summer Institute, in the Fitchburg State Teachers College, on July 18th through 22nd, Collins reported. Mrs. De Lisle had made the arrangements to go to the Institute, but Collins suggested that the cost should be part of the regular schools costs, and this met a favorable reaction. The committee voted to pay the costs ($16.50 plus transportation).

Pupil Insurance

Collins reported that he had acquired a lot of information, from other schools, on a program of pupil insurance, for athletics, which would be ready to be studied, at the committee's convenience.

James B. Moore, of Trueman Road suggested that the Town Manager's Insurance Committee be consulted on the question of pupil insurance. He was told by the other members of the School Committee, (principally Mrs. Ruth Gratecyk and Arthur Lynch) that first the Insurance Committee had too much work, as things now stood, and secondly the pupil insurance program was quite a standardized business. Moore withdrew his suggestion.

Hall Rental

Collins also reported that he had information on the Hall Rental program, of other School Departments, which would be discussed at a later meeting.

Mrs. Natalie Giroux

A letter of resignation was received, from Mrs. Natalie Giroux, for many years the Secretary of the Superintendent of Schools. Mrs. Giroux told the committee that she was resigning her position because of poor health. It was accepted with regrets, and the committee voted to make the effective date June 1, 1955.

Letters

A letter to the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company was read, in which the company was told that the rental for the Wildwood School, (for the Telephone Exhibit) was $25, which fee included the Custodian's fee.

A letter to Mr. William J. O'Rourke, teacher who has resigned to teach in Weston, was read. Mr. O'Rourke was thanked for his many services to the Wilmington schools, and complimented on his teaching ability.

Election

Ronald J. Howlett, of Roxbury, was elected to the position of Teacher of Industrial Arts, at a salary of $3000 a year. Mr. Howlett, who is at present a First Lieutenant in the US Marine Corps, is a graduate of the State Teachers College in Boston. He will be an addition to the staff, for the new High School, this fall, as a part of the increased Industrial Arts program, now in the sole charge of Mr. Hamblette.

CHARLES CROTTY RECEIVES NAVY PROMOTION

Washington, D.C. The Bureau of Naval Personnel announced the promotion May 16 of Charles E. Crotty, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Crotty of 6 Silverhurst ave., Wilmington, to aviation electronics technician second class, USN.

Crotty is serving at the U.S. Naval Station, Argentina, Newfoundland.

The advancement is the result of successfully completing the Navy-wide competitive examinations held in February.

Dillon, S.C., Herald: "Karl Marx has been dead nearly seventy-five years, but his warped mind and irregular life are responsible for many of the ills that have afflicted the world for the past half century. His false teachings have cost millions of lives."

Manheim, Pa., Sentinel: "It would be a great blessing to humanity and to civilization if governments were under the same compulsion to cut costs as is private enterprise. No matter how large a private business becomes it is faced with oblivion the moment management becomes lax and inefficient."

Mountain City, Tenn., Tomahawk: "Under freedom the people of this country have prospered."

Beavers Falls, Pa., News-Tribune: "The people in this country who would like to have their taxes reduced (and who wouldn't?) should take note of this. Tax reduction is the reward of having a balanced budget. Our taxes can be reduced again when the administration and Congress get our budget back into balance. Let's hope it won't be too long."

"BEHIND THE SCENES IN AMERICAN BUSINESS"

By Reynolds Knight

New York.—Those great feet-on-the-grounders, the nation's purchasing agents, held their annual convention in New York last week, and said everything looked rosy—or as rosy as anything ever looks to a purchasing agent.

This quarter is fine everywhere, delegates from throughout the nation agreed. The coming quarter July, August, September will see some slackening of the industrial pace, they likewise agreed. More plant shutdowns for simultaneous vacations for all hands will contribute. So will a natural reaction from high auto production, whether or not there's a long strike.

The fourth quarter, it was expected, would see a new upsurge. Credited for this were early introduction of 1956 auto models, continuing demands for a multiude of consumer goods stemming from full employment, and cautious up-building of inventories, the last because, the industrial buyers generally agreed, prices wouldn't go any lower.

Looking a little farther into the future, the purchasing agents saw clouds on the horizon in the form of excessive credit and a pattern of wages increases moving up, they felt, faster than supporting rises in productivity.

BIG REPAIR TASK AHEAD—More than $100 billion must be spent in the next 10 years to repair the nation's non-farm homes, a meeting of mutual saving banks officials was told recently. That sum will be needed for such work as painting, replacing heating equipment, re-wiring old homes and modernizing bathrooms.

Such outlays will keep hundreds of thousands of carpenters, painters, tile setters and handymen busy throughout the nation, and will account for a large volume of such products as lumber, ceramic tile, cement and even steel.

The ceramic tile industry to take an example, has long found the remodeling and modernization market a huge one. In many areas installing ceramic tile in old bathrooms and kitchens to give them waterproof, durable finishes is almost as large a business as installing the materials in new homes.

The 10-year home repair figures points up the importance of this field, and focuses attention on an often-overlooked factor in the national economy.

THINGS TO COME—A protective aluminum face mask is so flexible it fits any face. . . A new chemically treated paper bag just fits inside of a 20-gallon garbage can, for easy removal of its contents. . . A new stepladder can be unhinged at the top into two separate ladders. . . A jet propelled toy rocket, using water and compressed air as fuel, soars 300 feet. . . An emergency warning signal light folds up for your auto trunk, but stands 44 inches high when set on the road to divert traffic.

COMPETITION EQUITY—More competition in the transportation industry is recommended in the recently released report of the Presidential Advisory Committee on Transport Policy and Organization.

The report, aimed at a general overhaul of the Interstate Commerce Act, contains 12 recommendations. Four call for less ICC control, over the rates of common carriers; one is intended to reduce general ICC control over common carriers; and the remaining seven call for more ICC control over various elements of the transportation industry with the aim of equalizing regulation.

In releasing its report the Cabinet Committee gave as its major objectives "increased reliance on competitive forces of transportation in ratemaking, and maintenance of a modernized and financially strong system of common carrier transportation."

BUTTER'S COMEBACK—Time was, say between the end of the depression and World War II, when the average American ate nearly 17 pounds of butter, and not quite 3 pounds of margarine, every year.

During the war, when fats were rationed, use of the rival spreads drew closer together. Disappearance of the federal tax on margarine in 1950, when butter prices were being held up by the farm price support program, further narrowed the gap. The difference was only a per capita pound—8.7 to 7.7 in favor of butter in 1952.

Now butter is coming back, aided by a price drop of about 20 cents a year ago. Creamery men say butter is now being used at a 10.4 pounds rate compared to 9 pounds last year. Margarine has gained, too, with an indicated 8.9 pounds usage against 8.2 pounds last year; its gain is not as great.

Both commodities get some strength from the fact that table fats are regaining popularity. Total use, at 19.6 pounds per person per year in 1935-39, dwindled to 14.3 pounds in 1946.

and was only 16.1 as recently as 1952. Now it's back to 19.3.

BITS O' BUSINESS—One carpet maker has raised prices 3 per cent to compensate for the recent sharp increase in wool costs. . . Automobile production in May, despite the Memorial Day holiday, reached a record 731,000 passenger cars and 125,000 trucks.

Happenings That Affect the Future of Every Individual. National and International Problems Inseparable from Local Welfare

It is undoubtedly true that hope is higher now than it has been in years that the threat of World War III can be lessened, and the existing uneasy peace made more secure. That hope is based on another hope - that there has been a significant change in attitude in the Kremlin. Doughty old Winston Churchill suggested this, rather cryptically, when he said: "We have a new scene. New men are masters in the Kremlin. It is by no means certain that there is not another 'new look' on other faces with more powerful forces behind them which may still be most beneficial to the overwhelming masses of people all over the world who wish to dwell in peace with one another."

"This view is not universally held by any means. Authoritative and respected voices here and abroad warn that the Russian leopard will not change his spots, and that to think otherwise is the most dangerous of illusions. However, the top men in the West, for the most part, are now taking a cautiously optimistic stand. President Eisenhower, for one, sees signs of light ahead. It is of the utmost significance that he has agreed to a Big Four conference "at the summit," not just on the lower of the foreign ministers. In the past, he was very cool to this idea.

In part, the President's present position may be due to the pressure exerted by the British and French in behalf of any action that offers the slightest chance of improving the world situation. But the Russians, under their new leadership, have taken some tangible and important steps. The signing of the long-delayed Austrian peace treaty, which makes that country a neutral tied neither to East or West, is the outstanding example. And, apparently, the Russians will discuss the Formosa problem without the participation of Red China, which they refused to do in the past.

Dorothy Thompson, long a student of Russia and international communism, recently disputed the idea that nothing can or will change Lenin's theory that a long period of coexistence between capitalism and communism is possible, and that one or another will have to be destroyed. This concept, Miss Thompson argued, was radically changed by Stalin, "who made the building of the USSR primary, and pushed world revolution into the background and sought safety in a 'position of strength' and a balance of power." She believes that the situation holds the possibility "of a long period of armed but peaceable coexistence."

In another of her columns, Miss Thompson made an unusual and thought-provoking point. She wrote: "There is an odd contradiction in our own propaganda about the Soviet Union. On the one hand we say that the rigid monolithic structure of communism is unable to produce for basic human needs, and on the other, that it is capable of launching a third world war - war being the greatest imaginable consumer of goods and services. Both views simply cannot be correct."

In any event, the world outlook may change materially this summer. No one expects miracles from a Chiefs of State meeting or anything else. But perhaps, at long last, some groundwork for ultimate success in the reconciliation of differences may be laid.

ROD AND GUN NEWS

Gene Courtemanche

The Wilmington Rod and Gun Club will hold its regular monthly meeting tonight (Wed. the 8th) at the VFW Hall. The agenda includes discussion on a donkey baseball game, a deep sea fishing trip, and a turkey shoot according to the club president. New members or interested persons are cordially invited. Wilmington had no representation at the bait casting contest held at the Lowell Sportsmen Club. Even the Wilmington Boy Angling Club failed to appear. If you are desirous in competing in the contest please give me a call.

Early this week some foolish fisherman decided to get one of the bass lunkers (mentioned last week) from Silver Lake. We hear he has learned his lesson. Fly fishing is in full bloom. It seems a dry fly light in color, fished in the late evening along the Shawheen is the producer of a full reel. For the spinning enthusiast the small flat fish is the lure. The trout are wise to goldfish. I've had good luck with night crawlers along Lubbers Brook.

Working my pointer last week I ran into a nest of young pheasant. The young are about the size of a baseball. The pin feathers are gone, and they are moving around very awkwardly. Have you checked the pamphlet you received with your license, for the changes in the laws?

BAZAAR MEETING

There will be a meeting of St. Thomas Bazaar Friday night, June 10 in Villanova Hall at 8:30, all those interested may attend.

ACTIVE WEEK FOR MEN OF ST. THOMAS' PARISH

During the current week the men of St. Thomas Parish will engage in two of the most important religious exercises of the year. On Thursday, June 9th the men will travel by special busses and private cars to the Pomworth Street Playground in Stoneham for an evening Mass and Eucharistic Festival sponsored by the Woburn Area Holy Name Societies in honor of the Feast of Corpus Christi. All men who wish to travel by bus and who have not yet given their names, should contact President Arthur Harper immediately so that he will know how many busses to order. The busses will leave Villanova Hall about 7:00 p.m. The cost is 75 cents for men and 50 cents for students.

On Sunday morning the men will receive Communion at the 8:15 Mass and will then go to Villanova Hall for the annual Fathers and Sons Communion Breakfast. The speaker at the breakfast will be Joe McKenny, former Boston College Star and now director of athletics in the Boston School system. Tickets for the breakfast are $1.35 for men and 99 cents for the sons. They may be obtained from President Arthur Harper or from any member of the Committee. No tickets will be sold after Thursday, June 9th as final figures must be given to the caterer on Friday. All men who have taken tickets to sell should notify the committee of the number sold by Thursday night at the latest.

Lieutenants. Instead, the TM proposed a $20 yearly allowance to the men in the department, for the purchase of work clothes, saying that fire-fighting, and handling of the acids used in fire extinguishers was very hard on clothes. The TM also stated that he thought it was slightly foolish to have dress uniforms, for one parade a year.

Selectmen DeFelice and Woods promptly tangled on opposite sides of what constituted proper uniforms and allowances, for the Police and Fire Departments. They argued for nearly 15 minutes on the subject.

DeFelice charged that the men in the department would be wearing out their dungaree uniforms moving furniture, for outside pay, instead of in the station on regular duty. He also demanded of the TM on several occasions that something be done to ensure neatness in uniforms - "I know what will happen - they'll wear out the cuffs of their shirts, and then cut the sleeves off at the elbows. They'll be patching their pants, and then putting patches on patches, and all the time wearing out their uniforms wrestling with somebody else's furniture!"

Selectman Woods, on the other hand, seemed to think that there was a case of discrimination, between the Police and Fire Departments, because the police are getting $50 a year, uniform allowance while the firemen were to get $20 a year. He and DeFelice argued on several points, details of the uniforms, costs, uses, etc. Woods, on several occasions, labeled the situation a "Keystone Comedy".

After about 15 minutes Mrs. Drew observed that she would rather see dress uniform allowances for both the police and the firemen. She thought that buying dungarees for the firemen could establish a dangerous precedent. Again she observed that "The Town Manager has asked for opinions, and has got them!"

ROTARY TO POSTPONE OLD HOME DAYS TO LABOR DAY

The Old Home Days, scheduled by the Wilmington Rotary Park, Inc., for the first week in July, has been postponed until the Labor Day weekend.

TOWN NOTES

GREEK PUNS ETC

A pun is supposed to be the lowest form of humor, but we have had two of the more prominent gentlemen in town found guilty of puns, in this past week.

Speaking of the fact that the Girl Scout tent, stolen last summer, was found in the woods, not too far from the scene of the theft, Paul Lynch, Chief of Police said "And we thought we had the place well canvassed!"

The Rev. Stanley Cummings brought his knowledge of Greek history and mythology into play, in a pun on a mishap suffered several weeks ago by Henry Porter, Postmaster. Mr. Porter had the misfortune of tearing his trousers on a fence, and the Reverend gentleman's comment was that Henry told the fence "Euripides Pants!" He could have carried his pun a step further, by having Henry take the trousers home to Mrs. Porter, and telling her "Eumenides"

BASEBALL

We have been told, ever so secretly, that the Police-men have no idea of taking our aspersions, of last week, lying down. We predicted that the J. W. Greer Company employees would beat the local cops, in a baseball game, scheduled for yesterday evening.

Last weekend the Cops were full of plans, on what they were going to do, to make victory certain. They planned to arrest the first Greer employee, who should dare to steal a base, among other things. We are also told that every Greer player is going to get a parking ticket, just to keep him in the proper frame of mind.

Now it remains to be seen if the local cops will be men of their words, or if they will play honest baseball. By the time this edition hits the street the score will be known.

CHIROPIDIST

The changes apparant in the building of Griffin's Hardware store, in Wilmington Square, are being made for an out of town Chiropidist, who plans to locate an office in Wilmington. We don't know just when he will arrive.

FAULKNER - SPEARS

In a 4 p.m. wedding, on Saturday afternoon, May 21st, at the Wilmington Methodist Church, Miss Shirley Louise Faulkner, 224 Shawheen Avenue, became the bride of Airman Third Class Frank Alden Spear, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Spear of Hillside Way.

With a floor length gown of white embossed taffeta, and a fitted bodice, the bride wore a circular illusion veil, and a satin and pearl crown, and she carried a bouquet of pink roses and white pompons. She was given in marriage by her father, before an altar decked with white gladioli. The Reverend Richard E. Harding was the officiating clergyman.

Miss Sandra Armellani, of Ashland, a close friend of the bride, was the Maid of Honor. Miss Armellani wore a yellow waltz length gown of lace and tulle over taffeta, and carried a spring colonial bouquet, with a matching headpiece.

Ushers were Mr. Arthur F. Spear, Jr., brother of the groom, Mr. Hugh L. Porter, brother-in-law of the groom, and Mr. William Faulkner, brother of the bride, and all from Wilmington.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. & Mrs. Art. Spear, on Hillside Way. Mrs. Robert Belbin was in charge of the guestbook.

The new Mrs. Spear chose a beige suit, with white accessories, for her going away costume. The honeymoon was spent in Rye Beach, New Hampshire, and the couple plan to make their home in Texas, where Mr. Spear is stationed with the United States Air Force.

Both the bride and the groom are graduates of Wilmington High School, and before her marriage she was employed at the National Polychemical Co., on Eames Street. Mr. Spear is a member of the Wilmington Skating Club.

A/3c Frank Spear, Hillside Way, is now in Texas. His latest address is A/3C Frank Spear, AF 12462725, 3750th Tech Trng Wing, Sheppard AFB, Wichita Falls, Texas.

VANDALISM ON LAKE STREET BRIDGE

PUERTO RICAN PRESENTS LANGUAGE DIFFICULTIES

Antonio Cavagne a Puerto Rican, in the United States mainland for only three hour linguistic puzzle, Sunday afternoon.

Wilmington police with a three hour puzzle, Sunday afternoon.

Cavagne was noticed, by Officer John Imbimbo, at the scene of a fire on Marion Street. Officer Imbimbo's attention was drawn to Cavagne by the fact that he paid absolutely no attention to the fire, the police or fire vehicles, or the crowds. Cavagne, carrying three paper bags, just walked on as though there were nothing to attract his attention, so Imbimbo questioned him, only to draw a response of "I don't speak English".

Imbimbo learned that the man was a Puerto Rican. Joe Balestieri, taxi driver, was able to understand some of the words from Cavagne, but was unable to ask any questions. Balestieri had spent a couple of years in Puerto Rico, with the US Army, but had lost his ability to converse in the language.

Imbimbo then called John Dias, Andover Street, North Wilmington, to see if there could be any help there. Dias speaks Portuguese, was able to understand a few words, but was of no help to the police.

Working on the theory that the Puerto Rican might possibly be a farm laborer, from a neighboring community, Imbimbo then called all the adjoining towns and cities, to see if there were any "missing person" reports, but there were none. Officer Shepard volunteered to drive the Puerto Rican to Woburn, hoping that the Woburn police would have a Spanish translator. While this was being done, a Woburn farmer came to Wilmington, looking for a missing farm hand, who had been in Woburn for only three days. He had left a Washington Street (Woburn) farm at 7 am to attend church, and had become lost.

Officer Shepard was recalled, and Antonio Cavagne went back to his work, in the owner's car.

by Officer Joseph Cuoco, of the Wilmington Police. Cuoco charged Murphy with Driving an Unregistered Car, and Driving an Uninsured Car. Cuoco had stopped Murphy, on May 18th, when he noticed Murphy's car was being driven without plates.

ESCAPES SERIOUS INJURY WHEN CAR STRIKES HOME

James A. Burns, 110 Mansur Street, Lowell, escaped serious injury, Sunday evening, at 7:45 pm., when a car he was driving struck and demolished the brick front steps of John Sheehan, 859 Main Street. A woman and child, pedestrians, were barely missed by the car, which veered off the road and struck the Sheehan home. Burns was taken to the Choate Memorial Hospital, in Woburn, by Fire Department Emergency Vehicle, because the Ambulance was on a trip to St. John's Hospital, with victims of another accident. He had stitches taken on his forehead, cheek and chin, and on his chest, the last injury being inflicted by the steering wheel, post, which broke under the impact.

Burns told Officer Charles Dolan, of the Wilmington Police that he had heard a "click" and the car went out of control. The car was towed to Cain's Garage.

BACCLAUREATE SERVICE AT CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Life is a melody - but subject to interruptions, against which we must guard, was the subject of the Rev. Stanley Cummings' Bacclaireate Sermon to the graduate class, of Wilmington High School, Sunday afternoon. His sermon was delivered to the students in a 4 pm service.

Dividing his sermon into five parts, Mr. Cummings told the Seniors that Sin is something that should be controlled, and cited the meditations of St. Augustine, that Prolonged Illness may occur, but is something to be overcome, citing the example of Marjorie Lawrence, Opera singer, recently the subject of a movie.

The young men, who will find that they will be drawn into Military Service should not react with bitterness, and cynicism to this interruption to life's plans. Self-pity is Destructiveness, said the Reverend Cummings.

The distractions of life itself should not cause havoc, but should be surmounted, by making a necessity of a driving purpose. Mr. Cummings told the class. Brother Lawrence, working in a monastery kitchen, demonstrated that he could surmount distractions, and even more so, the Prophet Nehemiah, working on the rebuilding of the Wall of Jerusalem could draw inspiration from distractions. "I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down", was the quotation cited by Mr. Cummings.

The Intruding Voice of God was the last part of the message, in which the students were told that they should be alert to a call from God, to change their plans, as did Frederick W. Robertson, who abandoned a career as a soldier to become one of Britain's greatest preachers, in the 19th century, and the Prophet Amos, who did not actually abandon sheep-herding, when called upon by God, but accepted the challenge of a perilous mission, and became the first of a distinguished line of prophets of Israel and Judah. "When it comes to you," said Mr. Cummings, "May you have the grace to answer like Samuel of old, and say 'Speak, Lord, for thy servant heareth!'"

Brookside Kindergarten Has Open House

Last week the Brookside Kindergarten had a busy and entertaining week. On Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday the school held open house for parents and many new children who registered for next fall. The new children entered into the regular program, and a happy time was had by all.

On Friday the children enjoyed an outing and picnic at the Stoneham Zoo. The school will close on Friday, June 10th, for the summer vacation, at which time the present parents are welcome to come and visit.

After the ceremony a supper was served at the home of the bride's aunt, Miss Winifred McMahon.

Later the couple left by automobile for a trip through the White Mountains.

After July 1st they will reside at 95 Middlesex Ave., Wilmington.

Mrs. Butler is a graduate of the Wilmington High School and is employed in the office of Rafi & Swanson.

Mr. Butler, a graduate of the Wilmington High School served with United States Navy for two years and now is employed by A. W. Scott Company, builders of Melrose.

See Navy Yard

Cub Scouts from Pack 56 have had two busy weekends. Two weeks ago they took a trip to the Charlestown Navy Yard, and last week, practically 100 percent strong they spent Saturday at Plum Island, with their families.

There were two big things, for the Cubs, in the Navy Yard, the USS Timmermann, an experimental type vessel, and the USS Constitution. On the Timmermann, where the boys had lunch served, they found William Long, of No. Wilmington, a Chief Petty Officer, and on the Constitution the Commanding Officer was Lt. Charles (Chuck) Morris, of Silver Lake. In addition the boys had a chance to see the "rope-walk", where the US Navy makes its big manila ropes, the largest and longest in the world.

Plum Island was an expedition of an entirely different type, with games, playing in the sand, and wading in the salt-water, under the watchful eyes of parents. Not only the Cubs, but many of their younger sisters and brothers enjoyed this sport, and there was free hot-dogs, marshmallows, cokes, etc., for all.

Cub Scouts Have Circus

Cub Scouts of Pack 58, last Saturday evening, had a wonderful time, running a circus all by themselves, (with a little assistance from their elders). The circus was in the DAV Hall, on Grove Avenue, and about 100 spectators were present, to watch the fun.

Joe Barton In Town

Friends of the former Fire Chief of Wilmington, Joseph Barton, will be delighted to learn that he is back in town, and may stay here. Joe left, some years ago, to live in South Portland, Maine, but he showed up in the old stamping ground last Saturday.

Civil Service Employees

The Reading Chapter, of the Association of Civil Service Employees, $ to hold a regular meeting, on June 11th., at 2:00 p.m., in Room 19, of the Reading Municipal Light.

Whist Party

The ladies of St. Dorothy's Church, headed by Mrs. George Boylen of Williams Avenue will have a whist party, Friday evening, at the Silver Lake Betterment Hall, on Main Street. There are plenty of prizes, we are told, and the price of a ticket will be 55 cents.

South Tewksbury Dance

The dance, in the South Tewksbury Betterment Hall, last Friday, in aid of the Building Fund of St. Dorothy's Church was a very successful affair, both financially and socially. Over $55 was realized from the sale of tickets, etc. to the merry-makers.

Home From Hospital

We are glad to welcome Mrs. Helen Johnson (Helen Baldwin) home from the hospital, where she has been for sometime.

Mrs. McCabe In Hospital

Mrs. Hugh McCabe, of Grove Ave., and mother of Pauline McCabe, of the Merri-Mac Cleaners, is confined to the St. John's Hospital, and her many friends, along the Avenue, and about town, are keeping their fingers crossed for her complete recovery. She is a plucky little lady, and we are sure that she will be back among her neighbors any day now.

Cheer Leader's Thanks

The Cheer Leaders of the Wilmington High School, would like to extend their thanks, to their many patrons, who helped to make their Cake Sale of Saturday a success.

DAV Auxiliary To Elect

The William Tattersall Chapter, of the DAV Auxiliary, will hold an important meeting, tomorrow evening, at the DAV Hall, on Grove Avenue. Scheduled are the election of a new Chaplain, and of a State Committee Woman, and all members are urged to attend. The plans for the joint installation of new officers, on June 18th., will be completed at this meeting, and refreshments are to be served.

WEATHER

Rain, five days out of six, but still the rivers continue to drop in level. There were showers on Memorial Day (.03 inch), .43 inches, of rain, in a thunderstorm, the day following, on June 1st .10 inches, June 2nd .01 inch, June 3rd .03, and on the 4th .02, all in the form of showers. Total rainfall for May was 2.18 inches, about two inches below normal.

FISHING

Fishing, they tell us, is wonderful, although we haven't had much luck. The trout are biting, in Lubber's brook, and dry flies seem to be the best attraction.

We have noticed the young spry, of the bass which were planted in Silver Lake. They get together, and jump for flies. We weren't the only ones, for we have seen seagulls getting themselves a feed, from the school. (Incidentally, remember - there is no fishing in the lake until the Bass Season opens - July 1st.

The young alewives which were placed in the lake last week were not intended to be the start of alewife runs, in Lubbers brook, but rather intended to provide breakfast and supper to the bass, which were planted at the same time.
